

What Has The Nassau-Suffolk Horsemen's Association Done for You Lately?

- Educated the Horse Community to promote good horsemanship and humane treatment of equines.
- Represented the interest of horse owners and the equestrian industry at numerous State, County and local hearings & meetings.
- Maintained a close relationship, since 1980, with the American Horse Council in Washington, DC on national issues effecting Long Islanders.
- Maintained close relations and mutual support with local organizations on matters of mutual interest and concern.
- Increased public awareness of horses and the significant economic impact the equestrian industry has on the local and national economy.
- Helped to save the Old Bethpage Village Restoration park and the Long Island Fair from closure
- Supported and provided exhibitions at the Suffolk County SPCA Benefit for a horse rescue facility at Southaven and the Equine Rescue Unit.
- Testified before the Town of Hempstead Zoning Board of Appeals on behalf of the Lakewood Stables renovation in West Hempstead.
- Worked to see the Manor Hills Trailhead opened in Manorville, with parking accommodation for horse trailers.
- Appointed an equestrian representative to the LI Protected Lands Council which oversees activity in the Long Island Pine Barrens, Parks, Preserves and other open space.
- Supported Tax Relief proposals at public hearings and government meetings for small equine operations and properties.
- Presented living history school programs by the NSHA Rough Rider Cavalry and 10th NY Civil War Cavalry introducing over 10,000 children to horses each year.
- Organized and presented the famous "NSHA Swap Night", the Long Island Vineyard Trail Ride and Annual "Open House" Trail Ride & Exhibition event.
- Presented the annual NSHA Horse Show at Old Field Farm showground.
- Published a quarterly Newsletter to keep members informed and entertained, with free classified ads for Association Members.
- Have created and improved an Association Website with news items, links, photos, timely articles and a message board for member's news & discussion: www.nshaonline.org

PLEASE RENEW YOUR MEMBERSHIP
-OR-
JOIN THE NSHA TODAY